THE SCIENCE, ART & CRAFT OF TRANSFORMATIONAL LEADERSHIP: PURPOSE, DISRUPTION, AGILITY

with Nick Jankel

Unlock The Power Of Transformation, To Forge A Thriving Future

Join Thought Leader Nick Jankel for a short introduction to Transformational Leadership and why it is essential for organisations that want to take charge of rapid change and forge the future rather than fail it. Nick will share the essentials of the powerful Switch On Way framework for understanding how to lead transformation, based on the very latest neuroscience fused with timeless wisdom - and why transformational leaders must master disruptive innovation led by purpose and delivered by agility to ensure your organisation survives the digital, disrupted and damaged world.
